Pastor's Thoughts—Holy Cow Presentation part 2

This month we're continuing to share summary information from the Holy Cow Presentation!

Last month we reviewed our style of church life and drivers in the church. The next item we learned about was the priorities of the church as expressed by the members—where everyone felt we should be putting more energy and effort. Out of seventeen options, our top four were:

- Make necessary changes to attract families with children and youth to the church
- Develop and implement a comprehensive strategy to reach new people and incorporate them into the life of the church
- Provide more opportunities for Christian education and spiritual formation at every age and stage of life
- Strengthen the process by which members are called and equipped for ministry and leadership.

When you look at the priorities by different age groups, a few more pop up:

- Those under 35 would also like to see the church adapt opportunities provided to make them more accessible given the pace and schedule in their life (online education, early morning classes, etc.)

- Those 65 and above want to see the church work to renew and revitalize the community around the church by building coalitions with partners that share this vision and commitment
- Those between 35 and 64 want to see increased focus on the worship serviced and music to deepen a sense of connection to God and the overall worship experience.

Finally, we can also look at priorities of those who are able to attend once a month or less or twice a month or more:

- For those who attend infrequently (which likely includes many of our homebound members and friends), there is an expressed desire for opportunities for people to form meaningful relationships and to strengthen the management and support of persons in various ministries so they can do what they do best in work that is meaningful and celebrated.

- For those who attend frequently, there is a desire for more Christian education and spiritual formation and a strengthening of the process by which members are called and equipped for ministry and leadership.

Knowing what people are passionate about doing helps us plan activities we know people will be ready to get behind and work on together. It also helps us keep in mind the needs of those who we may not see often but are still vital parts of the congregational community!

The Church that Does ... and can Do More with You!

We are in the process of creating some outreach materials for the church, including Facebook posts and brochures, and we could use your help!

Tell us the activities you think we should be highlighting, and share your pictures and stories with Pastor Debra and members of the Renewal Team (Marsha Carter, Nancy Cox, Sue D'Imperio, Barbara Musgrave). What stories should we be telling about who we are and what we do here at FPC Palm Bay?

Tis the Season to get Decorating!

The season of Advent is approaching, and with it, time to decorate the sanctuary in preparation! On Sunday, November 23rd, we will hang the garlands, put up the wreaths, and raise up the Chrismon Tree! These white and gold ornaments contain symbols that reflect Jesus' identity and work as the Savior who is born to us at Christmas. Please plan to stay and help prepare our worship space for Advent and Christmas!

Poinsettia Orders

We love decorating the worship space with poinsettias the Sunday before Christmas and Christmas Eve. These vibrant plants have been associated with Christmas since the 1500s, and in addition to helping celebrate Jesus' birth they symbolize good cheer and success, and are said to bring wishes of mirth and celebration.

This year, poinsettia orders will need to be placed by December 14th. Each poinsettia will cost $10. Plants can be picked up after the Christmas Eve service or in the office on Tuesday, December 29th. Watch your bulletins for sign up forms beginning November 30th.

Thank You for Making Shoe Mission a Success!

The 2025 Shoe Mission work is now complete, and 108 students from 12 Elementary schools in the area took home gift cards that would help them get new shoes for school! We have heard back from several guidance counselors and social workers at the schools that the students and their families are grateful for the generosity of the church in making this happen!

Thank You for Supporting October Special Offering: ECHO

Located in Ft. Myers, ECHO exists to reduce hunger and improve the lives of small-scale farmers worldwide. Your support will help prepare missionaries and support personnel as they go into the world to help others with food insecurity and as a way of building connection to then share about Christ. Thank you for your support of this organization!

Did you Know...

The church subscribes to a daily devotion called The Upper Room on behalf of our members? We have printed devotional booklets in both regular and large print available in the office and sanctuary, with new editions coming out every other month. They are free to take a copy, or you can leave a donation if you want to help offset the cost. The devotions are written by many different contributors and always include a scripture basis, reflection to read, a thought for the day, and a prayer focus idea. Pick one up – even if you only read it a couple of times, it's a step towards cultivating a daily Bible-reading discipline that helps keep God at the forefront of your thoughts each day!

Stewardship Update

Thank you to all who have already returned both their Estimate of Giving and Church Vitality surveys as part of our 2025 Stewardship Campaign. You can continue to bring those to church or to the office to turn in. We also had requests for the two forms to be separated so that the engagement questions could be answered anonymously. Separate forms will be in the bulletin November 2nd and available in the sanctuary or office if you would like to get a copy.

3rd quarter giving statements are available to be picked up in the sanctuary of the church. Please review yours to make sure we have accurately recorded your gifts!

All Saints

All Saints Day is November 1st and is a day set aside in the church calendar in which we remember and give thanks for those whom we have loved and lost.

“Those we love don’t go away, they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard, but always near; still loved, still missed, and very dear.” - Unknown

IN THE WORD

Daily Devotion

November 1 Read Ephesians 1:11-12 Have you received an inheritance before? A trait, a skill, or financial support? What was your relationship with the person who gave it to you?	November 2 Read Ephesians 1:13-14 If the Holy Spirit is a seal and a pledge, consider this—what quality, ability or interest do you most closely associate with having the Holy Spirit at work in you?	November 3 Read 2 Thessalonians 1:3-4 What do you believe it is good to boast about? What accomplishments do you value in others or want to be remembered for? What are the actions of God we should praise?
November 4 Read Luke 9:1-2 The label “tax collector” defines Zacchaeus’ character for all around him. What labels do we use today that similarly carry assumptions about a person’s character and motivations?	November 5 Read Luke 9:3-4 Zacchaeus was determined to see Jesus while he was in town, yet nothing implies he expected to be able to speak with him. Why do you think he wanted to get a look?	November 6 Read Luke 9:5-6 What is most surprising to you—that Jesus noticed Zaccheus, identified him, invited himself to dinner, or that Zaccheus welcomed the opportunity? Why?
November 7 Read Luke 9:7-8 The crowd’s reaction indicates they thought Zaccheus unworthy of Jesus’ notice or presence. Do you think Zaccheus’ response indicates he is falsely accused or repentant of sin?	November 8 Read Luke 9:9-10 With Jesus’ words, he implies both that Zaccheus was one of the lost (a sinner) and that he is worthy (he, too, is a son of Abraham). He sees Zaccheus clearly, and still loves him.	November 9 Read Job 19:23-24 Job, accused by his friends of having committed a sin and earning God’s judgment. Job cries out that he wished his words, his claims of innocence, could be preserved.
November 10 Read Job 19:25-27 Job believes that one day, someone (a vindicator or redeemer) will believe him, and will defend his case before God, who, being just, will recognize the truth of his testimony and will again be “on his side”.	November 11 Read Job 19:23-27 Even though Job never knew to call on Jesus or the Holy Spirit, this passage is a powerful prayer of trust—how much more should we be confident, when we know the name of our redeemer?	November 12 Read Haggai 1:15b-3 The Lord speaks through his prophet to the governor, the high priest, and the people of the destroyed Jerusalem and asks them what they think of the remnants of the Holy Temple.
November 13 Read Haggai 2:4-5 As the Lord prepares to tell everyone his plans for what is left of his temple, and his nation, he first reassures them, telling them to take courage as he is with them. What kind of motivation or courage would that give you?	November 14 Read Haggai 2:6-7 The Lord wants the people to know that he is still powerful and active in the world. Their former defeat is not an indication that he is weak or incapable. He has power over the natural world and the nations of people who live in it.	November 15 Read Haggai 2:8-9 The Lord says that the future of his presence on the earth will be greater than what was seen in previous times. Beyond the silver, gold, and prosperity mentioned, what do you think brings glory to God in his church?

First Presbyterian Church of Palm Bay Daily Devotion

November 16 Read Luke 21:5-6 Jesus tells people marveling about the riches of the Temple that all will be destroyed. Why might this be a traumatic event? Why a positive?	November 17 Read Luke 21:7-8 Those around Jesus ask what signs they will see to know it's the time. Why might knowing warning signs be something they want?	November 18 Read Luke 21:9-11 Jesus begins the description by telling everyone not to be terrified—amid all that is to come, we should always remember God is with us!
November 19 Read Luke 21:10-11 Jesus makes it clear that there will be catastrophe and violence near the end, but this is not the only sign, or a definitive countdown to the end.	November 20 Read Luke 21:12-13 Before the wars, there is to be a time of persecution, when faith in Christ is condemned. Yet this should be seen not as an evil, but an opportunity.	November 21 Read Luke 21:13-15 Being willing to endure rejection and suffering for the sake of Christ testifies that we think he's worth it. We should prepare to testify to this.
November 22 Read Luke 21:16-19 The rejection won't only be at the hands of those in power, but from within our innermost circles. We are to take comfort in God's abiding love.	November 23 Read Isaiah 65:17 The foretold destruction of temple, kingdoms, and everything else is made less frightening when we know God has a plan for what comes next.	November 24 Read Isaiah 65:18 We are told to rejoice in what is coming into being—that what is being created will be a joy and delight. The future is promised to be good.
November 25 Read Isaiah 65:19 One joy is that the people of the Lord will no longer inspire his anger, but his delight. There is no sadness, because there is no cause for distress.	November 26 Read Isaiah 65:20 All of the tragedies that bring us grief now will be unknown in what God is building—no life will be cut short, but allowed to be lived abundantly.	November 27 Read Isaiah 65:21-23 The people of God will get to live in joy, peace, prosperity, and hope. They will get to see God bless generation after generation.
November 28 Read Isaiah 65:24 We will be so close to the Lord, that even before we open our mouths to speak, God will respond to our thoughts and hopes.	November 29 Read Isaiah 65:25 All will want to live in peace together, and there will be no place for anyone or anything that seeks evil instead of good.	November 30 Read Matthew 24:36 Since no one knows when, our job is to live in the certainty of Christ's return, but also to do what we can here and now to live as his disciples.
December 1 Read Matthew 24:37-39 Jesus describes the time of his return as happening when no one is looking for it—everyone is living as though their future is limitless and secure.	December 2 Read Matthew 24:40-41 The imagery used for the day of Jesus' coming is supposed to be startling—coming out of nowhere, catching people in their everyday tasks.
